State Treasurer Making 14 Stops in 4 Days with the Unclaimed Property Database

Tour Continues May 20

(Madison) State Treasurer Kurt Schuller will stop in 14 libraries over a 4 day period to find people who may have money sitting at the State Treasury and not know about it. The Treasurer's Office is in charge of more than $405 million in unclaimed property and is diligently looking to return it to the rightful owners. There are more than 2.1 million properties in the database.

If money is found, the Treasurer can begin the process of helping that person claim their cash and get it back to them in about 3 weeks. The schedule for the each day is below and the Treasurer will be available for media interviews.
